GOOD EYESIGHT IS MANKINDS GREATEST BLESSING

Even the Sun Shines Dimly for Those Whose Vision Is Blurred—Charles Lincoln Smith, Whose Splendid Work in Richmond Makes His Authority Absolute, Gives Plain Talk on Why People Trifle With This Priceless Gift.

Any one's eyes are the light of this particular world. No matter how brightly the sun shines, it does not shine brightly for him if his vision is dimmed, and all the glories of nature lose their beauty. Poor eyesight handicaps pursuit of business, pleasures or learning. In view of these facts, that are axioms, isn't it curious that nearly every one is careless about his eyes? This costly mistake is due largely to ignorance.

Charles Lincoln Smith

Few people know, says Charles Lincoln Smith, that besides size, shape and color, their eyes differ in visual force and in power of accommodation, and also that some faults affect only one of them. It is an established fact that we all use one eye, the right or the left, in preference when looking through a glass or taking aim with a gun.

Yet both our eyes are needed to see well. It becomes, therefore, highly important to observe how the child uses its eyes in order to correct those attitudes which tend to injury of the sight as well as the health. Children, in writing, scarcely fail to give the head an inclination by which the eyes are placed at an unequal distance from the paper. They are apt to incline the head too far, and acquire the habit of bringing it too near, as when trying to accommodate themselves to a feeble light. Not sufficient attention, we think, is given these matters, especially when we consider the consequences of such habits in mature age.

The handicap of imperfect vision is the greatest drawback in human life. Inability to see perfectly not alone causes discomfort and prevents the victim from enjoying a thousand happinesses of life, but also counts in actual losses of income day by day. Charles Lincoln Smith desires expressly understood that his charges are within the reach of all. Rooms Nos. 100-101-102 Murphy's Hotel Annex, at Eighth and Broad Streets—Eighth Street entrance; take elevator—continues to give consultation free each day of this week between the hours of 10 A. ## EDUCATORS BEGIN TO ARRIVE TO-DAY

Delegates to Convention of Department of Superintendents Will Stay All Week.

WILL BE WELL ENTERTAINED

Whole City Is Planning to Extend Glad Hand to Visitors. Arrangements Completed.

Delegates to the annual meeting of the Department of Superintendents National Education Association, will begin to arrive here to-day from every section of the country, and by tomorrow night it is expected that hundreds of delegates will be in town. The convention opens on Tuesday night with a big meeting in the City Auditorium, while business sessions are to be held simultaneously throughout the city during the week.

The headquarters will be at the Jefferson Hotel, where all members of the association are expected to register and secure the badges of admittance to the meetings. The National Council of Education and the Department of Normal Schools will meet here at the same time. Commercial exhibits, of which there will be many, will be shown in the auditorium. The National Council of Education will hold a session to-morrow night in the Jefferson Hotel, and the National Society for the Study of Education will meet in Seventh Street Christian Church.

While the convention will dispose of a mass of business and will hear a large number of important addresses and lectures on educational topics, the entertainment features have not been neglected, and there will be something to interest the visitors each day during the week. Among the invitations extended them are the following: Richmond Manufacturers' Exhibit, 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. each day; Virginia Historical Society, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. each day; Lee's home, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.; Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, John Marshall home, Ninth and Marshall Streets, 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.; Confederate Memorial Library, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.; Twelfth and Clay Streets, 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.; Valentine Museum, Eleventh and Clay Streets, 3 to 5 P. M.; Art Club of Richmond, 621 West Grace Street, 4 to 7 P. M.; City of Richmond, smoker, Jefferson Hotel on Thursday night at 10 o'clock.

In addition to these, the women's reception committee has arranged a number of events for the entertainment of the women in the city. The most important of these is a reception by Mrs. Henry C. Stuart on Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the Executive Mansion, and a special matinee will be given at the Bijou Theatre on Thursday. A reception will be given at the Sauer Extract Company's plant on Wednesday, and one at the Confederate Woman's Home on Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

One of the features of the entertainment will be a trip to Hampton on Saturday. A special train will leave here at 9 o'clock that morning, and on invitation of William and Mary College, a stop of one hour will be made at Williamsburg. The train will arrive at Richmond at 6 o'clock the same day.

The convention is expected to be one of the largest and most important ever held in this city. Several thousand delegates and visitors are expected to attend. Special railway rates have been made from every section of the country, and the local committee on arrangements is confident that the attendance will exceed 3,000. All educational sources of the city have united in efforts to give the visitors the best time they have ever had at any convention. The school children have been directed toward the entertainment of the city's guests by the preparation of handsome pamphlets containing historical sketches. These will be distributed free.

VIRGINIA DINNER TO EDUCATORS

Superintendent and Mrs. Stearnes to Entertain at Club on Wednesday Night.

One of the entertainments to be given this week in connection with the sessions of the Department of Superintendents of the National Education Association will be the "Old Virginia Dinner," at which State Superintendent and Mrs. R. C. Stearnes will act as hosts to the heads of the educational departments of other States.

The dinner which is to take place at the Westmoreland Club on Wednesday evening promises to be a delightfully informal affair. It is especially designed to afford the visiting educators a little relaxation in anticipation of the week's hard work before them. Several men of national distinction are booked for speeches and there will be musical and other features.

The superintendents of public instruction of all the States and territorial possessions of the Union, as well as their wives, have been invited, and already scores of acceptances have been received. In addition to these out-of-State superintendents, Superintendent Stearnes has invited Governor and Mrs. Stuart, Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Ellyson, Speaker and Mrs. Edwin P. Cox, the chairman of several legislative committees; P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education; Joseph Swain, president, and Durand W. Springer, secretary of the National Education Association; Ben Blawett, president of the Department of Superintendents of the N. E. A.; and Dr. A. E. Winslow, of Boston, editor of the New England Journal of Education. Invitations to the affair have necessarily been restricted to the superintendents of public instruction of other States and to a few Virginians of high official station.

The executive committee in charge of the dinner will consist of Mrs. R. C. Stearnes, Mrs. L. E. Dashiell and Mrs. Evan R. Chesterman.

DURHAM'S BIG SIGN.

An Electric Sign That Talks at Night from the House.

Durham, N. C., February 21.—Several months ago the Commercial Club of Durham fostered a contest to secure a suitable electric sign. "Renowned the World Around" was the winner. The Durham Traction Company, as the result of the activities of the Commercial Club, offered not only to construct a sign to exploit the slogan, but to furnish electricity and maintain the sign indefinitely. The offer was accepted, the sign was constructed, and just before Christmas at a largely-attended celebration the Traction Company turned over title to the city of Durham. It cost about $250, and has just been put in active, permanent service on the top of a three-story building, from which it may be seen from all entrances to Durham.

News of Petersburg

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 6 Bollingbrook Street, (Telephone 1483), Petersburg, Va., February 21.

I. H. Stiles, a citizen of Greensville County, was the victim of a most outrageous assault and robbery last night, as the result of which he was found early this morning in a helpless and much injured condition. While near the box factory on the river he was attacked by two men who struck him on the head, stripped him of his overcoat, his coat, his shoes and what money he had, and completed the outrage by forcing him headforemost into a barrel partly filled with uncooked lime. Mr. Stiles was severely bruised about the eyes and face by the lime and in suffering and exposed condition remained out in the cold and snow all night. He is unable to give any description of his assailants or to tell whether they were white men or negroes. He was taken to the hospital for treatment, and it is expected will lose the sight of one of his eyes. Mr. Stiles had been in the city a day or two, having come to visit one of his sons.

Moore Consolidation.

The visit of District Deputy Lanhoff, of the Loyal Order of Moose, resulted in the reception in the Petersburg Lodge of the order of the members of the lodge which was disbanded several years ago. The district deputy decided that the members of the old lodge are entitled to admission in the present lodge, and his decision was accepted at a meeting held last night. Efforts will now be made to get all members of the disbanded lodge into the present organization.

The Colonial Ball.

The Colonial ball given last night in Library Hall, under the auspices of Petersburg Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was a very delightful affair. The participants appeared in the costumes of Colonial times, and the grand march and the dances presented brilliant scenes. Fine music was rendered during the evening, and at midnight a collation was served. The occasion passed off most pleasantly and enjoyably to the ground, spectators as well as participants.

New Trial Granted.

Judge Mullen, of the Hastings Court, to-day set aside the verdict of the jury and granted a new trial in the case of Grant Fields, colored, who was convicted on Thursday of grand larceny, and his punishment fixed at one year in the penitentiary. It is said that the jurors at first were divided on the question of the guilt of the accused, a majority of them favoring acquittal. Since the trial new evidence has been discovered, tending to establish an alibi, and on the ground of this new evidence a new trial is granted.

Not the Man Wanted.

Chief Ragnier received a telegram from Fredericksburg stating that two men were under arrest there, supposed to be wanted in Petersburg. The supposition was that they might be the two safebreakers who recently operated in this city. The chief telegraphed back asking for descriptions of the parties. Information received to-day was to the effect that the men were being held as deserters from the navy.

General News Notes.

A number of summonses were issued to-day against parties for violating the city ordinance in refusing to be vaccinated. The city has provided virus and appointed physicians to make a house-to-house canvass to vaccinate those who have not previously been vaccinated, and imposed a penalty on those who refuse.

Interesting exercises appropriate to the celebration of Washington's birthday were held at the Jackson public school yesterday. Addresses were delivered by Miss Stuart, of Alexandria, and Thomas B. Ivey, a member of the school board. Recitations and compositions by the pupils were the order of the occasion.

Mrs. Ann R. Smith left for Panama this week to spend several months with her son, William A. Smith.

Mrs. C. O. Woodward, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Ann R. Smith, on Pine Street, left for her home in Florida this week.

Fire was discovered late last night in the kitchen of the Shirley Hotel, on West Tab Street. It was extinguished by chemicals by the department before much damage had been done. A hole was burned through the floor.

The Workmen's Union will meet on Monday night for the installation of officers and consideration of important business.

Dr. Senter, pastor of Washington Street Methodist Episcopal Church, will preach to-morrow evening on "Lessons from the Snow."

Monday will be observed as a holiday in celebration of Washington's birthday. The banks, Federal and other public buildings will be closed.

Among the real estate transfers this week were lots on Shore and St. Matthews Streets, sold by R. H. Tucker to R. B. Willcox and D. H. Willcox for $4,698.

Gastonia Enlargement.

Gastonia, N. C., February 21.—The Ozark Mills, of Gastonia, will soon complete its new building, now under construction. This building will be three stories high and 100x75 feet in size, and will be equipped (as heretofore stated) with 10,000 spindles and accompaing machinery. Contracts for this equipment have been awarded.

Choate Smithsonian Regent.

Washington, February 21.—Charles F. Choate, of Massachusetts, to-day was elected by the Senate to succeed the late Senator Bacon as regent of the Smithsonian Institution.

LESS MEAT IF KIDNEYS HURT OR YOU'RE BACKACHY AND RHEUMATIC

Meat forms uric acid, which clogs Kidneys, causes Rheumatism and irritates Bladder.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid, which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in the blood, to rid the system of uric acid, to cure rheumatism, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—Advertisement.
